House Bill No. 7001

by adding the following language as a new subsection (e) in SECTION 30:

(e) Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 2-10-128(a)(1), is amended by inserting the following language immediately following the second sentence which ends with the language “of any entity that provides a source of private income of more than two hundred dollars ($200).”:

If a member or a member’s spouse receives income from a client or class of clients whose identity may not be disclosed pursuant to a code of professional conduct or law, then the disclosure shall list the type of business of each client or class of clients. The commission shall create a list of type classifications by rule.

If a member of the general assembly receives income from the representation or assistance of clients before a state agency in the course of the member’s practice or business of law, then the member shall also disclose each state agency before which such member represented or assisted clients.

Representation or assistance of clients does not include appearances before any court or the preparation and filing of forms and applications if the action or permission sought through such forms or applications does not require substantial discretion, a variance, or a special consideration.
